Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dorothy Berniece Sly was born on August 5, 1913, to Earl and Clara Sly at Raymond, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Dorothy married Harry Campbell on May 23, 1942, and to this union three children were born: Bob, Peg, and Gwen, who in turn presented them with five grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Dorothy and Harry lived their married life at Garden City, South Dakota, and Dorothy owned her own beauty shop for several years as well as supporting the farm operation with her homemaking skills; and,

Whereas, Dorothy has enjoyed camping and crocheting in her leisure time; and,

Whereas, Dorothy now lives at Clark, South Dakota, and will observe her 90th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 5, 2003, as
